

- Construction of a water reservoir in Dire (Merhabete) allows 100 families to have continuous access to clean drinking water without having to travel long distances by foot
- „The construction of wells near the villages sets the women and girls free to pursue other tasks and also creates hygienic living conditions“

Karlheinz Böhm, founder of „Menschen für Menschen“

-  took over the local project support function in 2003

